Mission Statement: The Rockton Agricultural Society is committed to Agriculture, Education and Entertainment.
Welcome to the 167th Rockton World’s Fair. Our Fair theme this year is: Farming Footprints….Telling our Story.

The Fair’s story started 167 years ago. The founders of Rockton Fair established a 1 day agricultural exhibition where they offered competitions for thoroughbred cattle, horse trotting and sheep classes in both carcass and wool. Eventually they added vegetable classes like the 3 largest Swede Turnips and the best bushel of beets. Along the way the competitions expanded to include baking and entertainment, with prizes given for the best blueberry pie, and catching a greased pig, with the successful catcher retaining the pig. In 1909 the two finest looking ladies and the tallest man on the fairgrounds were given a prize.

Our founders created their footprints on the Fair. Those footprints have guided us through the years, and while we no longer reward height, people’s looks or catching greased animals, we still have cattle and horse competitions, vegetable competitions, pie making and pie eating competitions.

But perhaps the largest footprint left by our founders, and one we still walk in, is the footprint of passion and involvement of our volunteers. It took commitment to the vision and passion for the work to build this Fair. And this commitment and enthusiasm continues in our volunteers today.

Our Rockton Fair volunteers work tirelessly to bring this Fair alive. Through their work we are able to educate people about agriculture, and display the pride and efforts of our Exhibitors.

Our Fair was built by volunteers and continues to be a success because of our volunteers.

That is the story and the history of Rockton Fair.

We can walk in the footprints created 167 years ago, and we can step off the path and create new footprints for the next generations to follow.

See you at the Fair.

FAIR AMBASSADOR’S MESSAGE

Greetings Everyone!

I have the honor to represent Rockton World’s Fair this year as the fair ambassador. The fair has had such a huge impact on my life, and I am excited that I now have the opportunity to represent this impact.

With this year’s fair theme being “Farming Footprints, Telling Our Story” I am elated that this opportunity will be a part of my story. Representing the fair at the OAAS convention, the CNE competition, and other events throughout the year outside of the fair has been the most amazing experience.

I have learned and been able to experience so much from the fair and I hope you get the chance to learn or try something new this year.

From the livestock, to the midway, and everything in between, I hope you enjoy everything that the fair has to offer.

Whether you have been to the fair before or this is your first time in Rockton, there is something for everyone, from the young to the young-at-heart.

I hope you enjoy your time at the fair and come back again next year.

See you at the fair!

The Province of Ontario, through the L.L.B.O., has authorized the Rockton Agricultural Society to hold an Amateur Winemaker’s Competition with the co-operation of the Amateur Winemakers of Ontario. For the purpose of this show, provided the rules are followed (note in particular the entry requirements), it will be legal to transport homemade wine from the competitor’s home to the office of the Rockton Agricultural Society.

- A $1.00 fee must be paid per bottle submitted for competition.

- All competitors must comply with all L.L.B.O. requirements.

Any disputed judgment will result in the immediate disqualification of the disputant’s wine.

Please remember your exhibitor’s number.
